Fáilte - Welcome to the DCU Institute of Education

The Institute of Education at Dublin City University is looking forward to welcoming delegates to the Symposium meeting which we will be hosting from 13th-14th May, 2019. We hope that the meeting will prove to be productive and enjoyable and that cross-institution collaboration and cooperation will grow and deepen as a result of the meeting.

As Deputy Dean and Director of International Relations at the Institute of Education, I am looking forward to meeting the delegates and getting to know them and the work of their institutions better. The DCU Institute of Education is the newest faculty of Dublin City University. Established in 2016 as Ireland's first University faculty of Education, it has a staff of more than 130 full-time academics and a student body in excess of 4,000. The Institute brings together students of education across all sectors from early childhood, to primary and post primary, and further and higher education.

The DCU Institute of Education is committed to providing international experiences for students and staff through Erasmus and other projects. These experiences help us share our expertise and learn from other systems and cultures. The Symposium network is an important element in this work.

I look forward to extending a Céad míle fáilte (A hundred thousand welcomes) to you and a productive two-day meeting.

Prof. Pádraig Ó Duibhir

Deputy Dean and Director of International Relations
